The RN Exchange Program
2015 STTI 43rd Biennial Convention
Tuesday, November 10, 2015 - 10:20am

Tangee' Pruitt, MHSA
Pamela Petto, MEd, BSN, RN
Renee' Roberts-Turner, DHA, MSN, RN, NE-BC, CPHQ

Children's National Health System
Washington, DC
DISCLOSURE

THERE ARE NO ACTUAL OR PERCEIVED CONFLICTS OF INTEREST
Overview

This project provides a description of structure, processes, outcomes and benefits of establishing a formalized RN Exchange Program from a professional development perspective.
Learning Objectives

Learning Objective 1: The learner will be able to identify basic structures and processes needed to create a formalized and effective nurse exchange program.

Learning Objective 2: The learner will be able to identify benefits of a structured nurse exchange program.
Increase Quality

Education

Best Practices

Professional Development

Dissemination of New Knowledge

Decrease Cost

Innovation
The “P’s” and the “W’s”

THE “P” FORMULA

THE FIVE “W’s”
Using The “P” Formula

PURPOSE
+ PLAN
+ PROCESS
PACKAGE (PROGRAM)
Purpose - The 1st of the 5 W’s (WHY)

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
IDENTIFY BEST PRACTICES
QUALITY IMPROVEMENT
Plan (Structure) and the 4 other W’s

4 W’s
WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE Process

BUSINESS APPROACH

EDUCATION PLAN
Outcomes

INDIVIDUAL OUTCOMES

PROGRAM OUTCOMES
Package

PURPOSE
PLAN
PROCESS
References

Presenters’ Contact Information

Tangee’ Pruitt, MHSA – tpruitt@childrensnational.org

Pamela Petto, MEd, BSN, RN – pnpetto@childrensnational.org

Renee’ Roberts-Turner, DHA, MSN, RN, NE-BC, CPHQ – rrturner@childrensnational.org